BY A TEACHER, FOR TEACHERS! RESULT!

OO A SECRET GUIDE 4 OO 6 TEACHERS!

* * Dear Fellow Inspirational Learning Ledge' *

Before I was a teacher,
I was a kid who invented
the Manual of Mischief tradition at Bash Street School.
The secret school survival guide
is safely stashed in the library, so every kid could discover how to make school as cool as it can be.

Everyone talks about kids fretting over returning to school after the holiday, but what about us teachers?!

Going back is fun for teachers ready to embrace magnificent mischief! It's one of the most important things we can teach kids. The power of doing things differently, sometimes even breaking the odd rule! ← (Don't tell the head!)

Science says laughter helps learning, so get involved with my going back hacks.

You'll thank me later!

DESIGN THE WORST SCHOOL EVER!

Ask your class to work in groups to design the most bugging school in the universe!

Get them all to present their ideas back to the class, then

SWITCHEROO!

Ask them to design the GREATEST SCHOOL EVER!!

As well as boosting teamwork and creativity,

this will help you suss out what's most important to your pupils.

* Maybe you can make those DREAMS COME TRUE?!

Ask your kids which classroom rule they'd most like to SMASH!

Encourage a real giggle, describing what they'd do.

I find when I do this, it starts out wild, before the kids begin to wind themselves back in, often understanding which rules work for everyone.

WOULD you RATHER?

SCHOOL EDITION!

Kick off a fun debate amongst the class with these classroom conundrums!

WOULD YOU RATHER ...

Have to sing everything you say in class

OR

Do a silly dance every time you enter a room?

Have pencils for fingers

OR

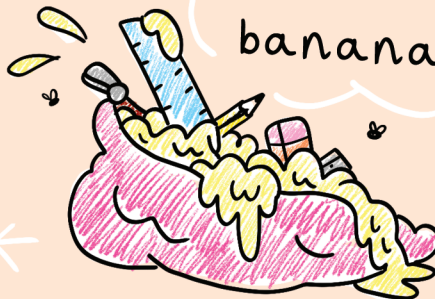

Cabbage sandwiches for your packed lunch?

Have a chair that farts every time you sit down

OR

Have a pencil case filled with squishy bananas?

You could even open it up to the class to come up with their own questions - if you're feeling BRAVE!!!

TEACH, LAUGH, REPEAT!

Use these laugh-out-loud lessons in your classroom to make learning fun for all!
